

South Dalton, Lockington & Lund

20.5 miles (33km) from Market Weighton

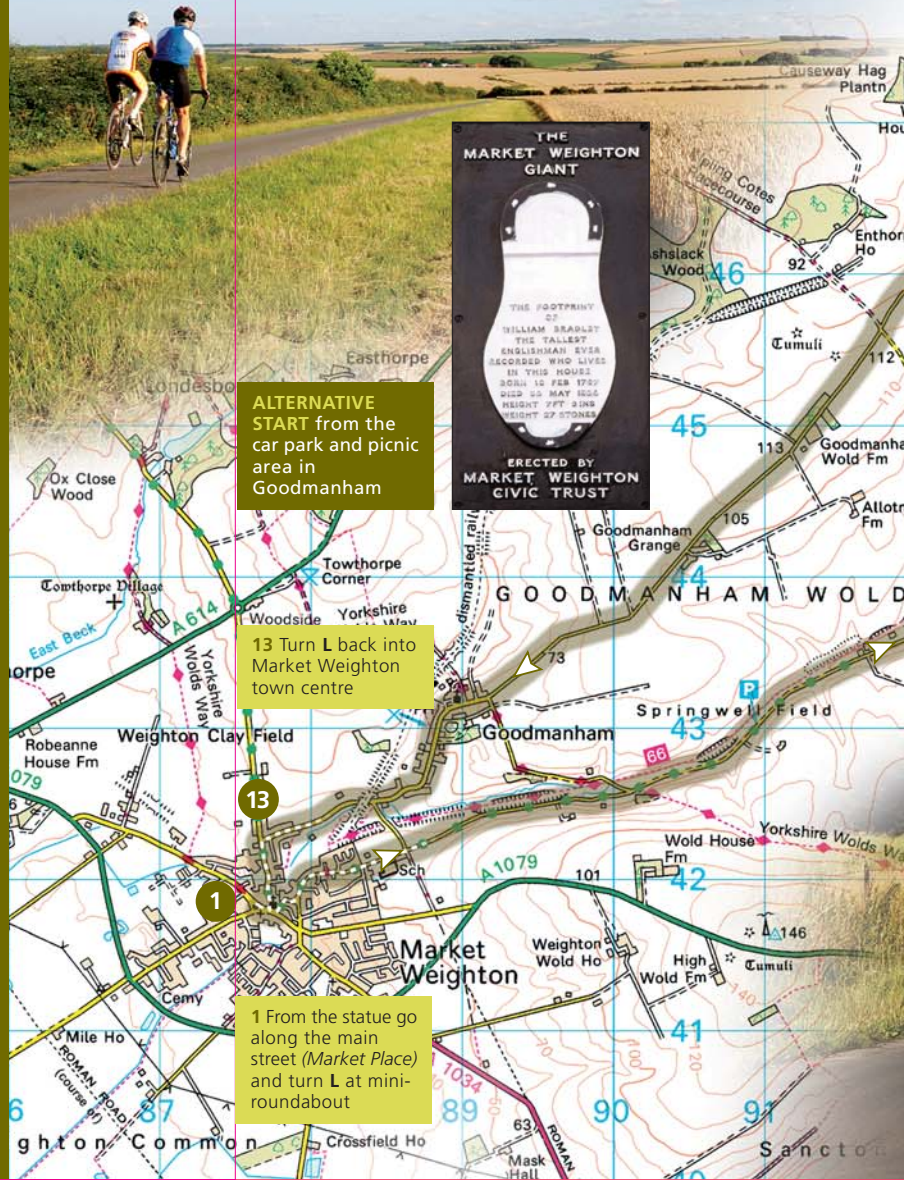

This ride skirts gently to the south of Goodmanham Wold and across parkland to South Dalton village. Here the 208ft (63m) spire of St Mary's church dominates the skyline for miles around. Then on through the attractive villages of Lockington and Lund, before climbing gently up and over the Wold to return via Goodmanham village (home of William 'Giant' Bradley), where the pub has its own micro-brewery. Wonderful views as you ride over Goodmanham Wold on the way back.

Money Hill, Goodmanham Wold

The village green at Lund

ALTERNATIVE START from the car park and picnic area in Goodmanham

13 Turn L back into Market Weighton town centre

1 From the statue go along the main street (Market Place) and turn L at mini-roundabout

Images © Cooper Douglas

Map © Crown Copyright 2010. All rights reserved. Licence 0100031673

12 Turn L uphill and bear R up and over Goodmanham Wold back to Market Weighton

11 SA at staggered X-roads (take care)

10 In Lund, with pub on R, bear L diagonally across village green, then L at T-jct

9 Turn R at T-jct (briefly back on National Route 1) and turn first L to Lund

8 Cross small bridge and turn L (try crossing at least one of the fords)

Shortcut back to Market Weighton. At T-jct in South Dalton turn L. Pass the church and turn L in Holme on the Wolds

4 Cross a cattle grid to cycle through the Hotham Estate

7 Turn R at X-roads towards Lockington

3 Turn R at X-roads then first R

5 Exit estate through gated road into South Dalton. Turn R at T-jct, then first L

6 SA at X-roads (take care), follow blue signs to next junction and turn L

2 Turn L at X-roads

Big skies ride info

Grade: Long - Easy/Moderate
All on road. Short cut via Holme on the Wolds

Start/finish: The William Bradley statue – free car park nearby (close to public toilets and church). Car park in Goodmanham is alternative start point

Refreshments: Choice in Market Weighton; pubs in South Dalton, Lund and Goodmanham. Opening times vary.

Public loos: In Market Weighton

